

Certificate Course for Sports Event Medical Coverage

Are you interested in providing medical support at sports events?

Then it is crucial for you to know how to apply your knowledge in the sports field and gain hands-on experience.

The Sports Medicine Subcommittee of the HK College of Emergency Medicine is holding a 1-day Certificate course, consisting of lectures and practical sessions. Through this course, you will learn exactly what you need to prepare yourself. A Certificate from the HKCEM will be awarded to attendees. Register early – space is limited!

Topics I include: Role of pitch-side medics, initial assessment, medical emergencies, spinal trauma, doping and medical legal aspects, spinal board practice, splint and more.....

Who should attend: Medical personnel (doctors, nurses, physios, first-aiders etc.) and sports event personnel (coaches, trainers etc.).

Date: 1st Course – 22 August 2009

2nd Course – 10 October 2009

In case of over-subscription, additional date for practical session will be arranged.
